

Dr. Pooja Sikka serves as an Assistant Professor of Economics at the University Institute of Laws, Panjab University Regional Centre, Ludhiana. She pursued her Ph.D. in Economics with a fellowship from the University Grants Commission at the Department of Economics, Punjabi University, Patiala. Demonstrating consistent academic excellence, she has secured various scholarships throughout her educational journey. With a rich teaching experience spanning 18 years, Pooja Sikka's passion for knowledge extends beyond the classroom. Her profound interest in research encompasses Economic Growth and Development, Poverty and Income Inequality, and Public Policy. She has contributed significantly to the academic domain, having four books, including published by Routledge and Springer. Her scholarly output includes a good number of publications in esteemed journals including indexed in Scopus, book chapters, book reviews, and conference proceedings. She actively engages in academic discourse, having presented numerous papers at both national and international conferences and seminars. She has demonstrated her expertise by delivering engaging invited lectures, adeptly chairing sessions, broadcasted on FM radio and providing valuable insights as a resource person. She has effectively coordinated a number of academic national/international Conferences, seminars, extension lectures, Faculty Development Program, Sensitization Programs, Special drives and Camps and Awareness Campaigns in collaboration with prestigious institutions.